ST. GREGORY'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH radiates God's grace, equipping all people to change the world.

3rd Sunday after the Epiphany January 21, 2024 | 9:30am www.StGsChurch.org

Welcome to St. Gregory's

If this is your first Sunday here, we invite you to take a Welcome Card from the pew holder, fill it out and put it in the offering plate or give it to a greeter. All are truly welcome to participate in worship, and we believe our community is made stronger by your unique presence as we join in prayer and communion.

Our Worship

In the Episcopal Church, we often say that praying shapes believing, so how we worship in word and action shapes how we believe and respond to God. We are physical creatures made in God's image, and the physical nature of our worship helps us to connect more fully to God.

Our sacred time of worship includes several different activities: singing, listening, praying, and feasting. This liturgy is enriched by the participation of everyone in the room. All are invited to speak the bolded text aloud. Some people choose to manifest prayers in physical ways to center their hearts and minds on God's presence in their lives and in the worship – we call these actions "manual acts," which are listed as follows throughout the bulletin:

(+) There are several points during the liturgy, where many people cross themselves by touching their head, chest, and each shoulder (left then right) to remind themselves that God is in their head, heart, and in all of their actions in the world.

(+++) At the declaration of the Gospel, many people make the sign of the cross with their thumb on their forehead, lips, and heart as the Gospel is announced. This action is a prayer asking God's word to be in our minds, our words, and in our hearts.

Generally speaking, we stand to pray, kneel to confess, and sit to hear. Regardless of what others are doing, how you physically worship is up to you and how you experience God. Your presence and participation is what matters.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

We begin our worship with the ringing of a bell. The people stand, as they are able.

OPENING ACCLAMATION & THE COLLECT FOR PURITY

Blessed be the one, holy, and living God. Glory to God for ever and ever. Amen.

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE SONG OF ZECHARIAH

Blessed be the Lord, the God of Israel; you have come to your people and set them free. You have raised up for us a mighty savior, born of the house of your servant David. Through your holy prophets you promised of old, that you would save us from our enemies, from the hands of all who hate us. To show mercy to our forebears and to remember your holy covenant. This was the oath you swore to our father Abraham, to set us free from the hands of our enemies, Free to worship you without fear, holy and righteous before you, all the days of our life. And you, child, shall be called the prophet of the Most High, for you will go before the Lord to prepare the way, To give God's people knowledge of salvation by the forgiveness of their sins.

We begin our worship by acknowledging our participation together in the Body of Christ. The Collect for Purity allows us to acknowledge that the ability to celebrate the liturgy depends on God's grace.

The canticles (based on the Latin canticulum, or "little song") are nonmetrical praise songs that are intended to be either sung or spoken. This season's canticle comes from Luke, and was the song of thanksgiving uttered by Zechariah about his son, John the Baptist. radiates God's grace, equipping all people to change the world.

January 21, 2024

In the tender compassion of our God the dawn from on high shall break upon us, To shine on those who dwell in darkness and the shadow of death, and to guide our feet into the way of peace.

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

The Lord be with you. And also with you. Let us pray.

Give us grace, O Lord, to answer readily the call of our Savior Jesus Christ and proclaim to all people the Good News of his salvation, that we and the whole world may perceive the glory of his marvelous works; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The people sit.

FIRST READING

JONAH 3:1-5,10

The word of the Lord came to Jonah a second time, saying, "Get up, go to Nineveh, that great city, and proclaim to it the message that I tell you." So Jonah set out and went to Nineveh, according to the word of the Lord. Now Nineveh was an exceedingly large city, a three days' walk across. Jonah began to go into the city, going a day's walk. And he cried out, "Forty days more, and Nineveh shall be overthrown!" And the people of Nineveh believed God; they proclaimed a fast, and everyone, great and small, put on sackcloth.

When God saw what they did, how they turned from their evil ways, God changed his mind about the calamity that he had said he would bring upon them; and he did not do it.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

PSALM 62

- 6 For God alone my soul in silence waits; truly, my hope is in God.
- 7 God alone is my rock and my salvation, my stronghold, so that I shall not be shaken.
- 8 In God is my safety and my honor; God is my strong rock and my refuge.
- 9 Put your trust in God always, O people, pour out your hearts before God, for God is our refuge.
- 10 Those of high degree are but a fleeting breath, even those of low estate cannot be trusted.
- 11 On the scales they are lighter than a breath, all of them together.
- 12 Put no trust in extortion; in robbery take no empty pride; though wealth increase, set not your heart upon it.
- 13 God has spoken once, twice have I heard it, that power belongs to God.
- 14 Steadfast love is yours, O God, for you repay everyone according to their deeds.

We follow a three-year cycle of readings called a Lectionary. These are lessons being heard in congregations from many denominations throughout the world on this day. The first reading is from the Hebrew Scriptures, which tell us the story of God's love and faithfulness to God's people from the beginning of time to just before Christ.

The Psalm is a hymn or poem. The psalms cover the whole range of the relationship between God and God's people. The Book of Psalms, while a "book" of the Bible, consists of 150 hymns intended to be sung.

radiates God's grace, equipping all people to change the world.

January 21, 2024

The second reading is usually from one of the New Testament Epistles (or letters), though occasionally from the Acts of the Apostles or the Book of Revelation. They teach us about the formation of the church and instruct us on how to live into our role as followers of Christ.

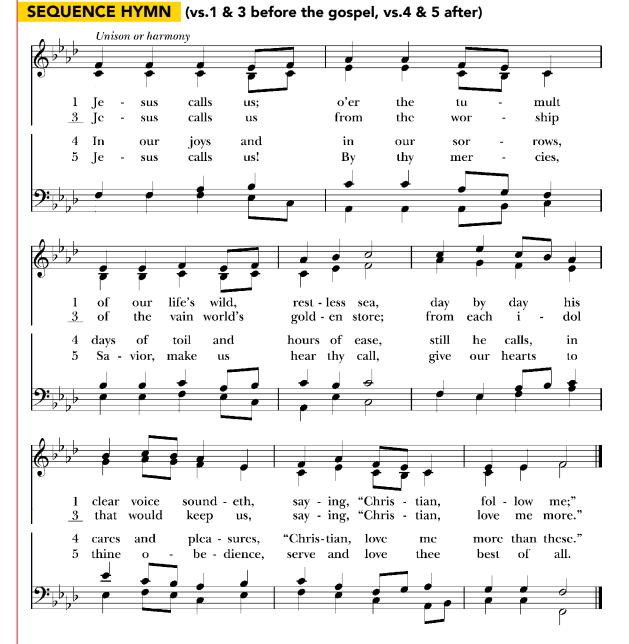

THE EPISTLE

1 CORINTHIANS 7:29-31

I mean, brothers and sisters, the appointed time has grown short; from now on, let even those who have wives be as though they had none, and those who mourn as though they were not mourning, and those who rejoice as though they were not rejoicing, and those who buy as though they had no possessions, and those who deal with the world as though they had no dealings with it. For the present form of this world is passing away.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

The people stand, as they are able. Children are invited to join the procession in the aisle for the reading of the Gospel.

MARK 1:14-20

During the Holy Eucharist, there is always a reading from a Gospel. We stand to indicate the importance we place on Jesus' words and actions. The deacon or priest proclaims the Gospel in the midst of the people to represent the Good News that Jesus has come among us, and we all turn toward it.

The sermon is meant to help us make the Word of God a living and transforming reality of our lives today.

In the Nicene Creed we respond to the proclamation of God's Word by affirming the historic faith of the Church. We "believe" (from the Latin credere, literally "to put one's heart into") because we offer our trust in the story of God's creating, redeeming, and remaining with the world. "We" believe because the church as a whole, the Body of Christ, carries and strengthens the faith of each individual. Also note that when it is not capitalized, the word "catholic" is defined as universal or inclusive

THE GOSPEL

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to Mark. (+++) Glory to you, Lord Christ.

After John was arrested, Jesus came to Galilee, proclaiming the good news of God, and saying, "The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God has come near; repent, and believe in the good news."

As Jesus passed along the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and his brother Andrew casting a net into the sea—for they were fishermen. And Jesus said to them, "Follow me and I will make you fish for people." And immediately they left their nets and followed him. As he went a little farther, he saw James son of Zebedee and his brother John, who were in their boat mending the nets. Immediately he called them; and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired men, and followed him.

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Christ.

SERMON

The Rev. Dan Puchalla, Priest-in-Charge

NICENE CREED

The people stand, as they are able.

	We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
•	of all that is, seen and unseen.
;	We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God,
•	eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light,
,	true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father.
	Through him all things were made.
	For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven:
	was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and became truly human.
	For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
;	he suffered death and was buried.
	On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
	he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
	He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
,	and his kingdom will have no end.
1	We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
F	who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
)	who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified,
-	who has spoken through the Prophets.
	We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
,	We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
	We look for the resurrection of the (+) dead,
	and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People are always responsive, because everyone gives voice to the supplications. We include prayers for others throughout the world, in our diocese, and those connected to our congregation. This is the part of the liturgy where it is most evident that we would be noticeably less without the contributions of each person present. We voice prayers from our parish prayer list, as well as requests from the onsite and online worshippers.

In the confession we admit the ways we have not lived as we were created to live, both individually, and corporately, and ask for forgiveness. The priest declares to us the wonderful grace of God's promise of forgiveness, reconciliation, and the absolute remission of guilt.

The Peace has been exchanged at the Eucharist since the time of the first Christians. It is a profound act to offer the miraculous peace of God to one another before we join in communion with God and each other.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

O God, who set the stars in the sky and the planets in their courses: make us wise to see the wonderful signs of your love in the heavens and upon this earth. We offer prayers of joy and gratitude. God of wonder,

Let our prayers come to you.

O God, by whose word evil is driven out and by whose compassion the sick are made whole: make us wise to seek healing for ourselves and to give healing to those who suffer. We offer prayers of intercession. God of wonder,

Let our prayers come to you.

O God, whose true glory was revealed in the face of Jesus before he set his face to suffering and death: make us wise to face death with courage and hope, and give eternal peace to those who now rest. We offer prayers for the dead. God of wonder,

Let our prayers come to you.

The Presider offers the concluding collect.

O God, we offer our prayers and thanksgivings with boldness, trusting that the wonders of your love are revealed with every step of our journey with you. Hear us and guide us all our days, that we may come ever closer to your light and radiate your light to all peoples; in the name of Jesus Christ our Savior. Amen.

CONFESSION & ABSOLUTION

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

The people kneel as they are able. Silence will be kept.

God of all mercy, we confess that we have sinned against you, opposing your will in our lives.

- We have denied your goodness in each other, in ourselves, and in the world you have created.
- We repent of the evil that enslaves us, the evil we have done, and the evil done on our behalf.

Forgive, restore, and strengthen us through our Savior Jesus Christ, that we may abide in your love and serve only your will. Amen.

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

The people stand as they are able.

THE PEACE

The peace of the Lord be always with you. And also with you.

The congregation greets each other in the peace of Christ.

The people sit.

OFFERTORY ANTHEM

January 21, 2024

"Ain't That Good News"

Traditional spiritual, arr. Moses Hogan

PRAYER FOR BIRTHDAYS, ANNIVERSARIES, AND TRAVELS

The Offertory is when we bring our gifts of bread, wine, money, and our very selves to present to the Lord as our initial act of thanksgiving. This collection is a visible reminder that our whole lives are God's, and a part of what God has given us we give back in thanksgiving for all that we have and all that we are. You can use this QR code to give to StGs online.

I got a crown up in-a that kingdom, ain't-a that good news. I'm-a gonna lay down this world, gonna shoulder up-a my cross, Gonna take it home-a to my Jesus, ain't-a that good news. I got a robe (harp, song) up in-a that kingdom, ain't-a that good news. I'm-a gonna lay down this world, gonna shoulder up-a my cross, Gonna sing my song-a for my Jesus, I'm gonna play my harp-a for my Jesus, I'm gonna put on my robe-a for my Jesus, i'm gonna wear my crown-a for my Jesus, Ain't-a that good news!

THE HOLY COMMUNION

The people stand, as they are able.

OFFERTORY HYMN

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

Communion, is the act of offering, breaking bread, and sharing in Christ's life, death, and resurrection. It also reminds us that we are Christ's body in our world today. As Episcopalians, the Eucharist is the principal act of worship, in which we always have a full proclamation of the heart of the Gospel. Celebrating Eucharist is something we do together, so we all take part in the prayers.

The Eucharist, or

The Lord be with you. And also with you. Lift up your hearts. We lift them to the Lord. Let us give thanks to the Lord our God. It is right to give God thanks and praise.

God of all power, Ruler of the Universe, you are worthy of glory and praise. Glory to you for ever and ever.

At your command all things came to be: the vast expanse of interstellar space, galaxies, suns, the planets in their courses, and this fragile earth, our island home.

By your will they were created and have their being.

From the primal elements you brought forth the human race, and blessed us with memory, reason, and skill. You made us the rulers of creation. But we turned against you, and betrayed your trust; and we turned against one another.

Have mercy, Lord, for we are sinners in your sight.

radiates God's grace, equipping all people to change the world.

Again and again, you called us to return. Through prophets and sages you revealed your righteous Law. And in the fullness of time you sent your only Son, born of a woman, to fulfill your Law, to open for us the way of freedom and peace.

By his blood, he reconciled us. By his wounds, we are healed.

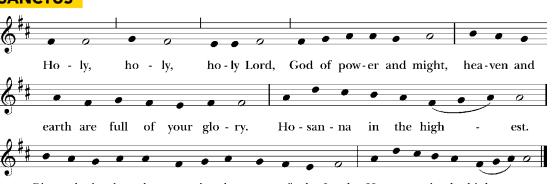

And therefore we praise you, joining with the heavenly chorus, with prophets, apostles, and martyrs, and with all those in every generation who have looked to you in hope, to proclaim with them your glory, in their unending hymn:

SANCTUS

The Sanctus (holy, holy, holy) recalls the words of the prophet Isaiah, overwhelmed by the presence of God in the sanctuary, and these words were sung by the people as Jesus entered Jerusalem on Palm Sunday. The Sanctus reminds us that this is an offering of the whole creation, which joins in singing these praises.

The Great Amen is the only word in our Book of Common Prayer that is in all capital letters. It emphasizes that we all join together in asking Jesus to be present in the bread and wine, in boldly affirming our desire to receive God. It is appropriate to say this with enthusiasm!

The Lord's Prayer is the prayer that Jesus gave to his followers when they asked him to teach them to pray. It links our daily bread to the spiritual food we receive in the Eucharist.

Bless-ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho-san-na in the high - est.

And so, Father, we who have been redeemed by him, and made a new people by water and the Spirit, now bring before you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ our Lord.

On the night he was betrayed he took bread, said the blessing, broke the bread, and gave it to his friends, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me." After supper, he took the cup of wine, gave thanks, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Remembering now his work of redemption, and offering to you this sacrifice of thanksgiving, We celebrate his death and resurrection, as we await the day of his coming.

Lord God of our Forebears: God of Abraham and Sarah; of Isaac and Rebekah, of Jacob, Leah, Rachel, Bilhah, and Zilpah; God of our Lord Jesus Christ: Open our eyes to see your hand at work in the world about us. Deliver us from the presumption of coming to this Table for solace only, and not for strength; for pardon only, and not for renewal.

Let the grace of this Holy Communion make us (+) one body, one spirit in Christ, that we may worthily serve the world in his name.

Risen Lord, be known to us in the breaking of the Bread.

Accept these prayers and praises, O God, through Jesus Christ our great High Priest, to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit, your Church gives honor, glory, and worship, from generation to generation. AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

January 21, 2024

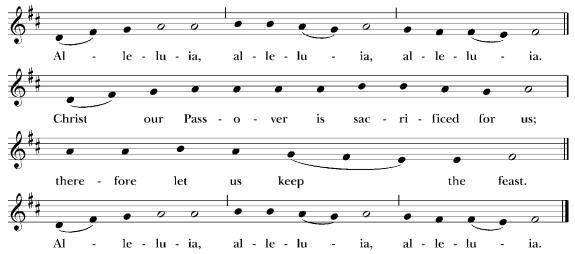

The Fraction recalls Jesus breaking the bread at the Last Supper to share with the disciples, and reminds us that Jesus' body was broken on the cross for us to be shared with the world. Therefore we keep a moment of silence for prayers of awe and gratitude.

BREAKING OF THE BREAD

The Presider breaks the consecrated Bread.

RECEIVING COMMUNION

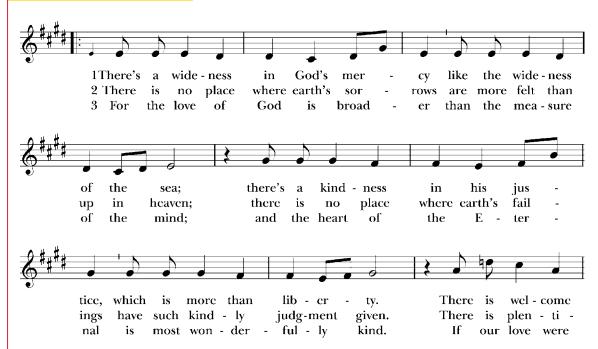

General: Please join the line to receive Communion. When you get to the front, hold out your hands to receive bread. Then step to either side to receive wine or juice in an individual cup.

Gluten-free option: Please ask for a gluten-free wafer from the priest when you come forward.

Non-alcoholic option: Please ask for juice from the minister holding the tray of cups. You also have the option to take only the bread to receive Communion.

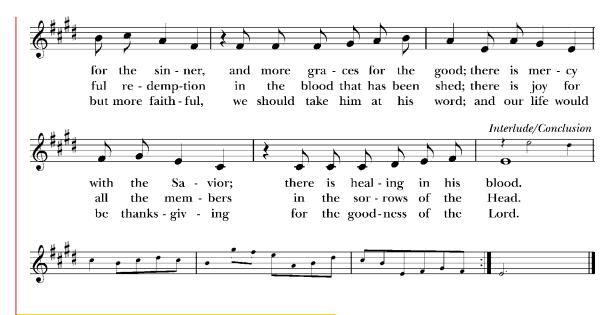

Not receiving: If you will not be receiving Communion, you are invited to come forward for a blessing. Please join the line and cross your arms over your chest when you get to the front.

COMMUNION HYMN

January 21, 2024

The Prayer for Spiritual Communion articulates a hunger for unity with Jesus Christ when you cannot physically receive the Body and Blood of Christ. This prayer connects the one(s) praying with the reception of Holy Communion. Those worshipping online are invited to say this prayer as those onsite receive Communion.

After Communion, we aive thanks for being part of the communion of God's life and for being fed so that we may go out to feed and serve others in our world.

One of the roles of the priest is to declare the

PRAYER FOR SPIRITUAL COMMUNION (for those worshipping remotely)

In union, gracious God, with your faithful people at every altar of your Church where the Holy Eucharist is now being celebrated, we offer to you praise and thanksgiving. We remember your death, O Christ; we proclaim your resurrection; we await your coming in glory. Since we cannot receive you today in the Sacrament of your Body and Blood, we beseech you to come spiritually into our hearts. Cleanse and strengthen us with your grace, Lord Jesus, and let us never be separated from you. May we live in you, and you in us, in this life and in the life to come. Amen.

The people stand, as they are able.

POST-COMMUNION PRAYER

Let us pray.

God of abundance,

- you have fed us with the bread of life and cup of salvation; you have united us with Christ and one another; and you have made us one with all your people in heaven and on earth. Now send us forth in the power of your Spirit,
 - that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world and continue for ever in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

The people sit.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The people stand, as they are able.

BLESSING

May Christ, the Son of God, be manifest in you, that your lives may be a light to the world; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you, and remain with you always. (+) Amen.

January 21, 2024

Having heard the Gospel and having been fed at communion, the final act of our common worship is the Dismissal. It is not an afterthought, but an integral part of the service. Jesus' final action on earth was to send his followers into the world to make disciples, baptizing and teaching them to obey all he had commanded. And so we are sent out into the world to proclaim the Good News and be Christ's hands and feet on earth.

The Priest or Deacon dismisses the people, and the people respond,

Thanks be to God.

How we practice our faith through Lent has a tremendous difference on our experience of the joy of Christ's resurrection at Easter. Ask God in prayer to guide you to the practices that will be most transformative for you this season. Whether it is fasting from food, altering your use of technology, participating more fully in worship and/or study, or taking on another practice... be intentional.

Ash Wednesday February 14

It's not about guilt – it's about healing. Start your healing journey with ashes-to-go in the StGs parking lot from 8-8:40am, a noon service at Trinity in Highland Park (425 Laurel Ave), or attend our 7pm service at StGs either onsite or online.

A Spiritual-Growth Experience in Lent | Every Sunday
