Welcome to St Gregory's

If you are visiting, we invite you to take a Welcome Card from the pew holder, and if you are willing, fill it out and put it in the Offering Plate or give it to a greeter so that we might thank you for worshipping with us. All are truly welcome to participate in worship, and we believe our community is made stronger by your unique presence as we join in prayer and communion.

Our Worship

In the Episcopal Church, we often say that praying shapes believing, so how we worship in word and action shapes how we believe and respond to God. We are physical creatures made in God's image, and the physical nature of our worship helps us to connect more fully to God. Therefore, at St. Gregory's, we change our liturgy during each liturgical season to help us more fully embrace the theology and tone of the season.

Our sacred time of worship includes several different activities: singing, listening, praying, and feasting. This liturgy is enriched by the participation of everyone in the room. Some people choose to manifest prayers in physical ways to center their hearts and minds on God's presence in their lives and in the worship – we call these actions "manual acts". Bowing one's head at the name of Jesus reminds us that Jesus is the King of Kings, and he rules from a place of humility. This is indicated by (v). There are several points during the liturgy, where many people cross themselves by touching their head, chest, and each shoulder (left then right) to remind themselves that God is in their head, heart, and in all of their actions in the world. These points in the liturgy are marked with this symbol (+). At the declaration of the Gospel, many people make the sign of the cross with their thumb on their forehead, lips, and heart as the Gospel is announced. This action is a prayer asking God's word to be in our minds, our words, and in our hearts. This is indicated by the symbol. (+++) Generally speaking, we stand to pray, kneel to confess, and sit to hear. Regardless of what others are doing, how you physically worship is up to you and how you experience God. Your presence and participation is what matters most to God.

The Season of Lent

A wonderful gift of the liturgical calendar is that it brings us through all of life's ups and downs, joys and sorrows, and then reminds us that we are not alone in any of it. In fact, our very souls cry out in gratitude to Christ for our salvation. The church calendar moves us through the Lenten season of self-examination, repentance, and renewal to prepare us for the joy of Easter.

In this season of preparation for Christ's resurrection, and ours, we invite you to observe a holy Lent that is both meditative and joy-filled. We seek to create worship experiences that honor the solemnity of Lent while also making us more ready to celebrate the joy of new life at Easter.

As you enter the worship we ask that you do so with the reverence the season deserves, so that you and others can prepare your hearts for worship. You will notice some periods of silence inserted in the service; take these moments for reflection and prayer.

We refrain from proclamations of "Alleluia" during Lent as a type of fasting, so that when it returns on Easter, the triumphant song will resound with greater joy after our time of expectant longing.

We do not use altar flowers during Lent because it is a season of simplicity. We look forward to beauty and abundance of God's creation returning with signs of life and color in the flower arrangements of Easter Day.

Altar appointments are also simplified during Lent. The purple vestments remind us that this is one of the church's waiting seasons, but also that we are preparing for the coming of the king. Our Altar hangings are removed to help us focus on only the essential parts of the season. Similarly, we remove the fancy cover to our Gospel Book; use glass vessels instead of silver; replace the fancy silver candlesticks with glass, pillar candles, and simple rocks; and use the wooden entrance cross to indicate the simplicity of Lent.

How much we practice our faith through the Lenten season can have a tremendous difference on our experience of the joy of Christ's resurrection. I invite you to consider how you might fully participate in Lent and Holy Week in preparation for the gift of Easter. When we expose our souls to God, we are transformed by the Holy Spirit. Ask God in prayer to guide you to the practices that will be most transformative for you this season. Whether it is fasting from food, altering your use of technology, participating more fully in worship and/or study, or taking on another practice, be intentional.

We begin our worship by observing a period of quiet to slow ourselves and rest in God's presence.

A PENITENTIAL ORDER

ENTRANCE CANTICLE 14 (sung by cantor)

O Lord of all the hosts of heaven, O God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob:
 You made the heavens and the earth with all of their vast array.
 All things quake with fear at your presence; they tremble because of your power.
 But your merciful promise surpasses all that our minds can fathom.
 O Lord, you are full of compassion, long-suffering and abounding in mercy.
 You do not punish as we deserve.
 In your great goodness, you promised forgiveness to sinners.
 And now, I bend the knee of my heart,
 And make my appeal, sure of your gracious goodness.
 I have sinned, O my Lord, I have sinned,
 And I know my wickedness only too well.
 Therefore I make this prayer to you: forgive me, Lord, forgive me.
 Do not let me perish in my sin, nor condemn me to the depths of the earth.
 For you are the God of those who repent,
 And in me you will show forth your goodness.
 Unworthy as I am, you will save me, in accordance with your great mercy.
 O Lord, I will praise you without ceasing, for all of the days of my life.
 All the powers of heaven sing your praises,
 Yours is the glory to ages of ages.

The people kneel as they are able.

TRISAGION

Please sing three times.

Ho - ly God, Ho - ly and might - y, Ho - ly im-mor- tal one, have mer-cy up- on us.

THE WORD OF GOD

We are invited to pray, and then the collect collects our prayers together in a single concluding prayer. The opening collect is tailored toward the church season.

We follow a three-year cycle of readings called a Lectionary. These are the lessons being heard in congregations from many denominations throughout the world on this day. The first reading is from the Hebrew Scriptures, which tell us the story of God's love and faithfulness to God's people from the beginning of time to just before Christ.

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

Leader The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Leader Let us pray.

O God, whose glory it is always to have mercy: Be gracious to all who have gone astray from your ways, and bring them again with penitent hearts and steadfast faith to embrace and hold fast the unchangeable truth of your Word, Jesus Christ your Son; who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The people sit.

FIRST READING

Genesis 15:1-12,17-18

The word of the Lord came to Abram in a vision, "Do not be afraid, Abram, I am your shield; your reward shall be very great." But Abram said, "O Lord God, what will you give me, for I continue childless, and the heir of my house is Eliezer of Damascus?" And Abram said, "You have given me no offspring, and so a slave born in my house is to be my heir." But the word of the Lord came to him, "This man shall not be your heir; no one but your very own issue shall be your heir." He brought him outside and said, "Look toward heaven and count the stars, if you are able to count them." Then he said to him, "So shall your descendants be." And he believed the Lord; and the Lord reckoned it to him as righteousness.

Then he said to him, "I am the Lord who brought you from Ur of the Chaldeans, to give you this land to possess." But he said, "O Lord God, how am I to know that I shall possess it?" He said to him, "Bring me a heifer three years old, a female goat three years old, a ram three years old, a turtledove, and a young pigeon." He brought him all these and cut them in two, laying each half over against the other; but he did not cut the birds in two. And when birds of prey came down on the carcasses, Abram drove them away.

As the sun was going down, a deep sleep fell upon Abram, and a deep and terrifying darkness descended upon him.

When the sun had gone down and it was dark, a smoking fire pot and a flaming torch passed between these pieces. On that day the Lord made a covenant with Abram, saying, "To your descendants I give this land, from the river of Egypt to the great river, the river Euphrates."

People The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

The Psalm is a hymn or poem. The psalms cover the whole range of the relationship between God and God's people. The Book of Psalms, while a "book" of the Bible, consists of 150 hymns intended to be sung.

PSALM 27

- 1 The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom then shall I fear? *
the Lord is the strength of my life; of whom then shall I be afraid?
- 2 When evildoers came upon me to eat up my flesh, *
it was they, my foes and my adversaries, whom stumbled and fell.
- 3 Though an army should encamp against me, *
yet my heart shall not be afraid;
- 4 And though war should rise up against me, *
yet will I put my trust in him.
- 5 One thing have I asked of the Lord; one thing I seek; *
that I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life;
- 6 To behold the fair beauty of the Lord *
and to seek him in his temple.
- 7 For in the day of trouble he shall keep me safe in his shelter; *
he shall hide me in the secrecy of his dwelling and set me high upon a rock.
- 8 Even now he lifts up my head * above my enemies round about me.
- 9 Therefore I will offer in his dwelling an oblation with sounds of great gladness; *
I will sing and make music to the Lord.
- 10 Hearken to my voice, O Lord, when I call; *
have mercy on me and answer me.
- 11 You speak in my heart and say, "Seek my face." *
Your face, Lord, will I seek.
- 12 Hide not your face from me, *
nor turn away your servant in displeasure.
- 13 You have been my helper; cast me not away; *
do not forsake me, O God of my salvation.
- 14 Though my father and my mother forsake me, *
the Lord will sustain me.
- 15 Show me your way, O Lord; *
lead me on a level path, because of my enemies.
- 16 Deliver me not into the hand of my adversaries, *
for false witnesses have risen up against me,
and also those who speak malice.
- 17 What if I had not believed that I should see the goodness of the Lord * in the land of the living!
- 18 O tarry and await the Lord's pleasure;
be strong, and he shall comfort your heart; *
wait patiently for the Lord.

The Second Lesson is usually a reading from one of the New Testament Epistles (or letters), though occasionally from the Acts of the Apostles or the Book of Revelation. They teach us about the formation of the church and instruct us on how to live into our role as followers of Christ.

During the Holy Eucharist, there is always a reading from a Gospel. We stand to indicate the importance we place on Jesus' words and actions. The deacon or priest proclaims the Gospel in the midst of the people to represent the Good News that Jesus has come among us, and we all turn towards it.

The sermon is meant to help us make the Word of God a living and transforming reality of our lives today.

THE EPISTLE

Philippians 3:17-4:1

Brothers and sisters, join in imitating me, and observe those who live according to the example you have in us. For many live as enemies of the cross of Christ; I have often told you of them, and now I tell you even with tears. Their end is destruction; their god is the belly; and their glory is in their shame; their minds are set on earthly things. But our citizenship is in heaven, and it is from there that we are expecting a Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ. He will transform the body of our humiliation that it may be conformed to the body of his glory, by the power that also enables him to make all things subject to himself. Therefore, my brothers and sisters, whom I love and long for, my joy and crown, stand firm in the Lord in this way, my beloved.

The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

The people stand as they are able.

Children are invited to join the Gospel procession in the aisle for the reading of the Gospel.

THE GOSPEL

Luke 13:31-35

Gospeler The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke. **(+++)

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Some Pharisees came and said to Jesus, "Get away from here, for Herod wants to kill you." He said to them, "Go and tell that fox for me, 'Listen, I am casting out demons and performing cures today and tomorrow, and on the third day I finish my work. Yet today, tomorrow, and the next day I must be on my way, because it is impossible for a prophet to be killed outside of Jerusalem.' Jerusalem, Jerusalem, the city that kills the prophets and stones those who are sent to it! How often have I desired to gather your children together as a hen gathers her brood under her wings, and you were not willing! See, your house is left to you. And I tell you, you will not see me until the time comes when you say, 'Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.'"

Gospeler The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The people sit, and the children return to their seats.

THE SERMON

The Rev. Anne B. Jolly

A period of quiet is observed to slow ourselves and rest in God's presence.

The people stand, as they are able.

In the Nicene Creed, we respond to the proclamation of God's Word by affirming the historic faith of the Church. We "believe" (from the Latin credere, literally "to put one's heart into") because we offer our trust in the story of God's creating, redeeming, and remaining with the world. "We" believe because the church as a whole, the Body of Christ, carries and strengthens the faith of each individual.

THE NICENE CREED

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.

With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.

He has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead, (+) and the life of the world to come. Amen.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Leader Seeking the fullness of Christ's work, we pray:

People Hear us, and have mercy.

Leader That the disciples of Jesus may continue his healing work, we pray:

People Hear us, and have mercy.

Leader That those preparing for baptism, especially Whitney and Allison, may cast off anything that impedes their journey to faith, we pray:

People Hear us, and have mercy.

Leader That Jerusalem may know the peace that God desires for all its people, we pray:

People Hear us, and have mercy.

Leader That world leaders may heed prophets of justice and equity, we pray:

People Hear us, and have mercy.

Leader That the sick may behold the fulfillment of the one who comes in God's name, including those we now name (prayers for the sick, sad, lonely, and afraid are offered), we pray:

People Hear us, and have mercy.

Leader That God may gather the prayers of thanksgiving we now offer (prayers of thanksgiving are offered), we pray:

People Hear us, and have mercy.

Leader That the dead may be gathered beneath the shelter of divine wings, including those we now name (prayers for the dead are offered), we pray:

People Hear us, and have mercy.

Celebrant O God, as a hen gathers her brood, so you shelter your people. Free us from our resistance to your gracious will, that we may behold the one who comes in your name, Jesus Christ our healer. Amen.

THE PEACE

Celebrant The Peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

The congregation greets one another in the Peace of Christ.

PRAYERS FOR BIRTHDAY, ANNIVERSARY, AND TRAVEL

OFFERTORY

OFFERTORY ANTHEM

*“Adoramus Te, Christe”
by Richard Romiti*

*Adoramus te, Christe, et benedicimus tibi
Quia per sanctam crucem tuam redemisti mundum.
Qui passus es pro nobis, O Domine, miserere nobis.*

Translation:

*We adore you, O Christ, and we bless you.
For by your holy cross you have redeemed the world.
You who suffered for us, O Lord, have mercy on us.*

The Peace has been exchanged at the Eucharist since the time of the first Christians. It is a profound act to offer the miraculous peace of God to one another before we join in communion with God and each other.

The Offertory is when we bring our gifts of bread, wine, money, and our very selves to present to the Lord as our initial act of Thanksgiving. This collection is a visible reminder that our whole lives are God's, and a part of what God has given us we give back in Thanksgiving for all that we have and all that we are.

THE HOLY COMMUNION

The people stand, as they are able.

OFFERTORY HYMN

Doxology

Praise God from whom all blessings flow; praise him all creatures here be - low;

Praise him a - bove ye heaven - ly host; praise Fa - ther, Son, and Ho - ly Ghost.

The Eucharist, or Communion, is the act of offering, breaking bread, and sharing in Christ's life, death, and resurrection. It also reminds us that we are Christ's body in our world today.

As Episcopalians, the Eucharist is the principal act of worship, in which we always have a full proclamation of the heart of the Gospel. Celebrating Eucharist is something we do together, so we all take part in the prayers.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Celebrant God of all power, Ruler of the Universe, you are worthy of glory and praise.
People Glorify to you for ever and ever.

Celebrant At your command all things came to be: the vast expanse of interstellar space, galaxies, suns, the planets in their courses, and this fragile earth, our island home.
People By your will they were created and have their being.

Celebrant From the primal elements you brought forth the human race, and blessed us with memory, reason, and skill. You made us the rulers of creation. But we turned against you, and betrayed your trust; and we turned against one another.
People Have mercy, Lord, for we are sinners in your sight.

Celebrant Again and again, you called us to return. Through prophets and sages you revealed your righteous Law. And in the fullness of time you sent your only Child, born of Mary, to fulfill your Law, to open for us the way of freedom and peace.

People By Christ's blood, we are reconciled.
By Christ's wounds, we are healed.

Celebrant And therefore we praise you, joining with the heavenly chorus, with prophets, apostles, and martyrs, and with all those in every generation who have looked to you in hope, to proclaim with them your glory, in their unending hymn:

The Sanctus (holy, holy, holy) recalls the words of the prophet Isaiah, overwhelmed by the presence of God in the sanctuary, and these words were sung by the people as Jesus entered Jerusalem on Palm Sunday. The Sanctus reminds us that this is an offering of the whole creation, which joins in singing these praises.

The Great Amen is the only word in our Book of Common Prayer that is in all capital letters. It emphasizes that we all join together in asking Jesus to be present in the bread and wine, in boldly affirming our desire to receive God. It is appropriate to say this with enthusiasm!

SANCTUS S-124

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might, hea - ven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est.
 Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Celebrant And so, Eternal God, we who have been redeemed by Jesus Christ, and made a new people by water and the Spirit, now bring before you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ our Savior.

At the following words concerning the bread, the Celebrant is to hold it, or lay a hand upon it; and at the words concerning the cup, to hold or place a hand upon the cup and any other vessel containing wine to be consecrated.

On the night he was betrayed Jesus took bread, said the blessing, broke the bread, and gave it to his friends, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper, Jesus took the cup of wine, gave thanks, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Remembering now his work of redemption, and offering to you this sacrifice of thanksgiving,

People We celebrate Christ's death and resurrection, as we await the day of his coming.

Celebrant Lord God of our ancestors; God of Abraham and Sarah; God of our Savior Jesus Christ: Open our eyes to see your hand at work in the world about us. Deliver us from the presumption of coming to this Table for solace only, and not for strength; for pardon only, and not for renewal. Let the grace of this Holy Communion make us one body, one spirit in Christ, that we may worthily serve the world in his name.

People Risen Savior, be known to us in the breaking of the Bread.

Celebrant Accept these prayers and praises, Almighty God, through Jesus Christ our great High Priest, to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit, your Church gives honor, glory, and worship, from generation to generation. AMEN.

The Lord's Prayer is the prayer that Jesus gave to his followers when they asked him to teach them to pray. It links our daily bread to the spiritual food we receive in the Eucharist.

The Fraction recalls Jesus breaking the bread at the Last Supper to share with the disciples, and reminds us that Jesus' body was broken on the cross for us to be shared with the world. Therefore we keep a moment of silence for prayers of awe and gratitude.

People

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

BREAKING OF THE BREAD

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

FRACTION

The assembly echoes each phrase of the cantor at the interval of one measure.

O Lamb of God, you take a - way, the sins of the world, have mer - cy on us. Grant us peace.

INVITATION

All are welcome at the Lord's table. Baptized Christians, regardless of denomination or age, are invited to receive Holy Communion. Gluten-free bread is available; please ask the clergy. Receiving the bread only is full communion in the body of Christ, so if you choose to not receive the wine, you may cross your arms over your chest as you pass the Eucharistic Minister, or take a cup of consecrated juice.

To receive communion, hold out your hands and you will be given the bread. Then take a cup of wine or juice from the Eucharistic Minister, move to the next tray, consume the Bread and wine there, put the empty cup in the tray, and replace your mask before returning to your seat.

Anyone who has not been baptized, or for other reasons desires to receive a blessing instead of Communion is invited to come forward, and cross your arms over your chest to indicate your desire for a blessing. If you seek a deeper relationship with Christ through baptism, please speak with a priest after the service.

COMMUNION TAIZES

Stay with me, re - main here with me; watch and pray, watch and pray.

A To be sung by all as a canon - parts A, B, and C can be sung simultaneously

By your _____ cross and all the wounds you suf - fered, grant us free-dom in your love, grant us free-dom in your love, grant us free-dom in your love, in your love.

By your _____ cross and all the wounds you suf - fered,

The Prayer for Spiritual Communion articulates a hunger for unity with Jesus Christ when you cannot physically receive the Body and Blood of Christ. This prayer connects the one(s) praying with the reception of Holy Communion. Those worshipping online are invited to say this prayer as those onsite receive Communion.

After Communion, we give thanks for being part of the communion of God's life and for being fed so that we may go out to feed and serve others in our world.

One of the roles of the priest is to declare the eternal truth of God's ever-present blessing to God's people.

PRAYER FOR SPIRITUAL COMMUNION (for those worshipping remotely)

All at home In union, gracious God, with your faithful people at every altar of your Church where the Holy Eucharist is now being celebrated, we offer to you praise and thanksgiving. We remember your death, O Christ; we proclaim your resurrection; we await your coming in glory. Since we cannot receive you today in the Sacrament of your Body and Blood, we beseech you to come spiritually into our hearts. Cleanse and strengthen us with your grace, Lord Jesus, and let us never be separated from you. May we live in you, and you in us, in this life and in the life to come. Amen.

The people stand, as they are able.

SENDING OF EUCHARISTIC VISITORS (when appropriate)

Celebrant We send you out to share Communion this week.
People May you carry the prayers of all of us as you take this sacrament of Christ's presence.

Celebrant May those who receive it from you be strengthened and encouraged in that community we have together in our Lord Jesus Christ (v).

All Amen.

After Communion, the Celebrant says, Let us pray.

All Almighty and everliving God, we thank you for feeding us with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; and for assuring us in these holy mysteries that we are living members of the Body of your Child, and heirs of your eternal kingdom.

And now, send us out to do the work you have given us to do, to love and serve you as faithful witnesses of Christ our Savior.

To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit, be honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

ANNOUNCEMENTS AND SOLEMN PRAYERS OVER THE PEOPLE

Deacon Bow down before the Lord.

The congregation kneels as the celebrant says the prayer,

Celebrant Keep this your family, Lord, with your never-failing mercy, that relying solely on the help of your heavenly grace, they may be upheld by your divine protection; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The people stand, as they are able.

The Deacon dismisses the people, and the people respond,

People Thanks be to God.

Having heard the Gospel and having been fed at communion, the final act of our common worship is the Dismissal. It is not an afterthought, but an integral part of the service. Jesus' final action on earth was to send his followers into the world to make disciples, baptizing and teaching them to obey all he had commanded. And so we are sent out into the world to proclaim the Good News and be Christ's hands and feet on earth.

Wednesday Adult Formation in Lent: A Series on Hope

(Offered By Our Partners In Ministry At St. Elizabeth's) 7:00 PM via Zoom

During challenging times, the church and our faith tradition can be a wonderful source of hope. Join St Elizabeth's, for a Lenten Series on Hope. We will discuss the meaning of hope and explore finding hope through music, scripture, and the liturgies and imagery of Holy Week. This formation opportunity will be offered on Zoom. The Zoom link can be found on the St. E's virtually page of our website. (www.steglencoe.org)

March 16: Hope through Music; March 23: Hope through Scripture;
We will not meet on March 30 {Spring Break; April 6: Hope through Holy Week

Want To Join Your Friends At Trinity For Some Lenten Reading?

We will be reading "The Church Cracked Open: Disruption, Decline, and New Hope for the Beloved Community" by the Rev. Stephanie Spellers, our church's national Canon for Evangelism, Reconciliation, and Creation. Spellers is a priest and Black Episcopalian, and she undertook this book during the pandemic to address the history of race and racism in the Episcopal Church, as well as propose some steps toward something new. While acknowledging our church's and our country's difficult histories, she also highlights what she calls "shards of light" among past Episcopalians who can point us toward the future. Her last three chapters are devoted to a forward-looking spirituality of being "the church cracked open," which invites us to envision the church in new ways together. Nevertheless, we expect to feel uncomfortable—not a bad feeling for Lent! At the same time, Stephanie is a trustworthy guide. The book group meets Tuesday, 7 pm on March 15, 22, and 29, maybe hybrid (some in person): For more information email The Rev. Bryan Cones of Trinity (rector@TrinityChurchHP.org).

Observing Holy Week – April 10-16

This week trains us spiritually to know that every emotion we have has already been felt by Christ. It reminds us that when we fall into the depth of those experiences ourselves that Jesus has been in them, and is in them with us. It also reminds us that none of the painful experiences or emotions are the final word - not even death. At the end of Holy Week, we live the truth of the resurrection.

We begin Holy Week with the Palm Sunday procession and enter into the mystery of the Passion. This year, we will continue that procession throughout the week – just as Jesus journeyed to the cross, so we also will journey from place to place to experience this most holy week in new ways with our partner congregations. All the zoom links will be on our website: www.stgregoryschurch.org/holy-week-2022

Palm Sunday: April 10 – Service beginning with the (hopefully outdoor) procession at 9:30am onsite and online.

Holy Monday and Tuesday: April 11 and 12 – Compline online at 7pm.

Holy Wednesday: April 13 – Tenebrae (beautiful, ancient liturgy with candles slowly being extinguished towards darkness) at 7pm onsite and online at St. Elizabeth's, Glencoe.

Maunder Thursday: April 14 – Eucharist with foot washing at 7pm onsite and online at St. Lawrence in Libertyville.

Good Friday: April 15 – Solemn Liturgy with Communion from Reserved Sacrament at 7pm onsite and online at Trinity, Highland Park.

Holy Saturday: April 16 – Holy Saturday Morning Prayer at 8am onsite and online at StGs.

Easter Vigil: April 16 – The primary liturgy of our church year – Eucharist with Baptisms at 7pm onsite and online at StGs.

Easter Morning: April 17 – Festival Eucharist with special music – 9:30am onsite and online at StGs.

What an honor it will be to take this sacred journey with our partner congregations!

StGs remains masked through Easter

After careful consideration and prayer, the vestry has voted unanimously to keep our mask policy at StGs at least through Easter. Children under 5 cannot yet be vaccinated, and this is a congregation with special care for families - and we heard from people who are part of our worshipping community and those visiting that masks help them feel more comfortable being onsite with us. Many adults also affirmed this small consideration is a big factor for them in choosing to worship onsite. So we will continue to wear masks while in the building and at worship with the following exceptions: readers and worship leaders may remove masks to lead worship, and small meetings in rooms that can be closed off with no children present, and where all participants are vaccinated and comfortable being unmasked. Together we continue to protect the most vulnerable among us - thank you for physically sharing your faith and honoring our Baptismal vows in this way.
